The number called is for the first of 4 animals that must be sorted out of the herd and moved across the line in consecutive order. i.e. The announcer gives the team #5. The team sorts out #5 yearling first and pushes it across the line, then 6, then 7, then 8, in this order. Time is flagged when the last animal cross the line.

One rider at a time may be deep in the herd sorting. A wing man close to the herd is not considered a sorter or to be deep in the herd.
- 5. Time begins when first rider crosses the line.
- 6. Without loping or trotting in the herd, the team has two and a half (2.5) minutes to sort four (4) head of yearlings in consecutive order across the line.
